

Bakers
Walking
Co

BAKERS BEACH TASMANIA

Multi Day Getaway

Disappear into Tasmania's untamed heart with friends or colleagues, guided through hidden country few ever find.

3 Days / 2 Nights

| 32 km

| Bakers Beach, Tasmania

WELCOME

A private stretch of wild Tasmania.

Over three unhurried days you will walk through bushland, coastal country and open woodland across a 1,137-acre private estate at Bakers Beach — then return each evening to the calm of an off-grid timber lodge.

What follows is everything you need to know before you go: the walk, the lodge, the days in between, and the practical details.

CONTENTS

Walk at a Glance	03	The Lodge	10
Where You'll Walk	04	Sauna, Baths & Evenings	11
Why Walk With Us	05	Inclusions	12
Itinerary at a Glance	06	Fitness, Gear & FAQs	13
Day by Day	07	Guest Words	14
		Packages & Contact	15

WALK AT A GLANCE

The essentials, before the detail.

DURATION

3 Days / 2 Nights

DISTANCE

32 km, walked at pace

GRADE

Intermediate

ACCOMMODATION

Private off-grid lodge

ACTIVITIES

Walking, sauna, baths, night walk

GROUP

Small, 6–8 guests

No technical walking experience is required — only a moderate level of fitness.

Devonport pickup and drop-off is included where noted, and the experience runs year-round.

WHERE YOU'LL WALK

From Devonport to the edge of Narawntapu, across a private estate few ever set foot on.

Guests are collected from Devonport and driven north to Bakers Beach, on the doorstep of Narawntapu National Park. From there, everything happens within a single 1,137-acre private estate — 22 km of private tracks through bushland, open woodland, coastal edges and hidden lagoons, all walked at a relaxed, guided pace.

WHY WALK WITH US

Rare access, held to a small number of guests.

This is a genuine 1,137-acre private property, not a public trail shared with passing tourism — walked in small groups, with two professional Tasmanian guides who know the land and its wildlife well.

Private land

22 km of tracks across our own estate, closed to the public.

Local knowledge

Guides who grew up walking this coast and this country.

Small groups

An intimate, unhurried pace with real time to talk and look around.

Lodge comfort

A warm, private place to return to at the end of each day.

ITINERARY AT A GLANCE

Three days, unhurried.

DAY	EXPERIENCE	WALKING	STAY	MEALS
Day 0	Arrive in Devonport — optional pre-walk stay	—	Annie May Guesthouse	—
Day 1	Arrival at the estate, private tracks, sauna, dinner, night-vision wildlife walk	approx. 8–10 km, flexible	Private lodge	L / D
Day 2	Narawntapu, coast, Archer’s Knob or estate tracks, lodge evening	approx. 12–16 km, flexible	Private lodge	B / L / D
Day 3	Final morning walk, breakfast, return to Devonport	approx. 4–6 km, flexible	Return to Devonport	B

Itinerary, distances and walk sections may vary depending on weather, group needs and guide judgement.

DAY 1

Arrival at the Estate

The journey begins in Devonport, where guests are collected and driven north to the estate at Bakers Beach. Once settled, the afternoon opens into a Tasmanian lunch, time on the private tracks, the sauna and outdoor baths, and dinner as the light fades. As night falls, the group heads out together for a wildlife walk across the property with night-vision equipment.

WALK

Flexible estate walk

STAY

Private lodge

MEALS

Lunch and dinner

HIGHLIGHT

Night-vision wildlife walk

DAY 2

Narawntapu & the Coast

After a cooked breakfast, the day opens into Tasmania's wildlife-rich north coast. Narawntapu National Park sits right on the estate's doorstep — guests may climb to Archer's Knob for coastal views, or walk the park edges watching for wildlife. Back at the lodge by late afternoon, dinner and the campfire close out the day.

WALK

Longer walking day

GRADE

Intermediate

STAY

Private lodge

HIGHLIGHT

Coast, wildlife and lodge evening

DAY 3

Farewell

A gentle final morning — breakfast, one last wander through the trails, and a quiet farewell to the property. Departure is late morning, arriving back in Devonport around midday.

“Standout moment was going out at night with night vision equipment... we were able to spot a Tassie Devil.”

EWAN BLYTH, ANTARCTIC EXPEDITION LEADER

THE LODGE

Timber, off-grid, and built to sit close to the bush.

The lodge is warm, simple and built to put guests close to the bush without sleeping in it — Tasmanian timber throughout, shared living areas, and views across the estate from every room.

- Sleeps up to 10
- Shared living areas
- Four outdoor baths
- Starlink at the lodge, though guests are encouraged to disconnect
- Modern kitchen
- Panoramic sauna
- Outdoor firepit

SAUNA, BATHS & EVENINGS

Where the days end.

Evenings are a real part of the experience — the sauna with wilderness views, four outdoor baths under open sky, a firepit, good food, and time to slow down after walking. Guests wanting more can head out on the night-vision wildlife walk before the fire takes over.

WHAT'S INCLUDED

Clear, before you arrive.

Included

Two nights' accommodation on the estate

Guided walking across the three-day experience

Two professional Tasmanian guides

Meals as outlined in the itinerary

Sauna and outdoor baths

Night-vision wildlife walk

Transfers between Devonport and the estate, where included

National park access where applicable

Not Included

Travel to and from Devonport

Flights

Airport transfers, unless arranged separately

Travel insurance

Alcohol and additional personal purchases

Optional pre- or post-stay accommodation, unless added

Personal walking gear and clothing

FITNESS, GEAR & WEATHER

Suitable for reasonably active adults — moderate fitness, no technical experience required. Terrain is natural bush, with coastal tracks, beach and woodland underfoot. If you can walk 5 km at a slow pace, you're likely fit enough. Tasmania's weather is changeable; layering is recommended and full gear guidance is provided before the trip. The experience generally proceeds rain or shine, with adjustments made along the way.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

What level of fitness is required?

If you can walk 5 km at a slow pace, you are likely fit enough to enjoy the estate walk.

How safe are the walks?

Guides carry first aid kits and communication devices, with protocols for different scenarios, and the property is accessible to emergency services.

Will there be mobile reception?

Reception is limited in some areas. Starlink is available at the lodge, though guests are encouraged to disconnect.

What is the accommodation like?

A restored off-grid lodge — warm, spacious and quietly comfortable, with a modern kitchen, shared living areas, sauna and outdoor baths.

What happens if there is bad weather?

The experience generally proceeds rain or shine. Our private track network lets us adjust the itinerary to keep guests safe and comfortable.

Is the itinerary fixed?

The route and daily walking plan may be adjusted depending on weather, track conditions and group needs.

GUEST WORDS

What people remember.

"It gave me a degree of comfort that if anything went wrong, we'd have an easy exit."

Greg Marshall — Writer, Hobart

"I enjoyed how lunch was provided in a quiet spot with only birds for company."

Josh Perry — MasterChef AU Finalist

"The outstanding moment was absolutely the five-course dinner at the end of the day."

Larissa Bartlett — Research Fellow, UTAS

"Great to have access to such a rich area, less disturbed than more commercialised places."

Sophie Ballagh — Antarctic Guide

"If I had to say what the best thing was, it would be the sauna and baths."

David Bartlett — Former Tasmanian Premier

"We were able to spot a Tassie Devil — I had never done that before."

Ewan Blyth — Antarctic Expedition Leader

PACKAGES & PRICING

Two ways to walk with us.

Join a Group

From $2,997 per person

Small shared group

Three-day guided experience

Two nights at the off-grid lodge

Meals included

Devonport transfers where included

Private Group

From $3,107 per

person

Private booking for your own
group

Typically six to eight guests

Flexible pace and itinerary

Optional add-ons available

Tailored to the group

Pricing and inclusions may vary by date, group size and booking type. Confirm current pricing before booking.

Bakers
Walking
Co

Enquire or Book Your Multi Day Getaway

bakerswalkingco.com.au

admin@bakerswalkingco.au

1050 Bakers Beach Rd, Bakers Beach TAS 7307, Australia